For almost 5 years, I've been trying to complete an exercise I first read about in Laura Vanderkam's book 168 Hours: You Have More Time Than You Think: create a personal list of 100 dreams.. The idea is this: to help you think through how you want to spend your time (in the big-picture sense) brainstorm an unedited list of anything you want to do (or want to do more of) in your life.

Then we have the top 100 dreams. And it is not the typical example of above. In fact Mr Wallace explains these dreams like this:-a synopsis of the dream, the meaning(a good couple of paragraphs), the action you should take, and the background. For me that was the most interesting, everything made sense when where the dream comes from was explained.

To me, accuracy when making a Top 10/Top 100 all time list is extremely important. My lists are not based on my own personal favorites; they are based on the true greatness and/or success of the person, place or thing being ranked. In other words, a film's commercial success (Oscars & BAFTA Awards), and greatness in direction, screenwriting and ...
